Yes, London has maintained its position in the world, but if the Government wants to reach the full potential of Brexit, then this must mean bringing about serious change and not simply accepting the status quo.

UK in Talks with Denmark for Joint Migrant Holding Centre in Africa: Report

Why should we accept these demands when this is not a requisite which the EU has forced on any other countries they have equivalence deals with — for example the USA, China and Singapore — so why single out the UK? This means that we publish papers dealing with any part of the world, and on any theme, to do with comparative politics, liberally defined. Many of these journals are the leading academic publications in their fields and together they form one of the most valuable and comprehensive bodies of research available today. ### Government Beyond the Centre: Sub

The families of those killed by soldiers in west Belfast in 1971 have urged against a statute of limitations on Troubles prosecutions. This is about shaping a system which encourages new businesses and is prepared for the future, rather than being stuck in the past, tied to a sclerotic EU legislative process which lags behind the rest of the world.
