These gentlemen, who were members of the Tribunal only through condescension, were persuaded that nothing would be found worthy of retaining, as Bishop de Teil, the Vice-Postulator, confided to us later. That which is, is the intervention of God, it is solely His grace; and He does not need writings to have it penetrate and enlighten a soul. Under her government there was question for a time of sending Thérèse to Indochina, then Mother Agnes of Jesus, finally Sister Geneviève and Sister Marie of the Trinity.

The world seems to me like a dream a vast chaos. It seemed to me that the Blessed Virgin was one of us, that she was my sister, my friend. But I saw there that what I lack when speaking of Our Lord, is the knowledge of the proper expressions.

Story of a Soul The Autobiography of St. Thérèse of Lisieux Study Edition by Marc Foley

On Sister Geneviève's Jubilee day itself, Bishop Jacquemin had made known to her his intention of opening the Informative Process of the Cause of Louis Martin. I have practically scrutinized the places in Palestine where He passed.
