Maine: The Pine Tree State

Then, they were suddenly extinct. A brisk afternoon breeze had picked up, and high, thin clouds were developing.

Down East

In no democrat has led the county since Hubert Humphrey back in 1968. After a while, we walked up to his new truck, a GMC pickup with full cab, and drove to his house to meet his friend Bea, who joined us as we drove over to Prospect Harbor for lunch together.

The Equinox Petroglyph Project: Interpretations by Women and Children In October of 2006, one of the most sacred and well-documented sites of ancient petroglyphs on the eastern seaboard of the United States was returned to its original peoples, the Passamaquoddy Tribe.

Chummy Rich

Now this children's author and illustrator and painter is in demand. Plus, they provide bikes you may use to explore the island. It focuses on their daily routines, including finding work, paying bills, making friends, finding someone to love, feeling a sense of community, and having a home.

Lighthouse Boat Cruises in Maine

Few had life jackets, they had no water, and had gone for five days without food.

Lighthouse Boat Cruises in Maine

Elihu and Adrian were the ones that built the carriers and stuff outdoors to start with. King speaks candidly about his choice to leave horror and fantasy behind. We proceeded out of the Bagaduce River and back down the shore of Cape Rosier on what was another day with brilliant sunshine and little wind.
