Baptism

He can also do it through whatever means He has chosen.

Gospel Water Baptism & John's Baptism Compared to Holy Spirit Baptism

Brown cloth, gilt lettered spine. THE ABOVE MATERIAL WAS TAKEN FROM MEASURES OF OUR FAITH, AND PUBLISHED BY WORD AFLAME PRESS, 1987, PAGES 39-46. While salvation has always been based upon faith, the content of faith has changed over time according to the revelation and the command of God.

Baptists: Believer's Baptism

For the people listening to Peter, it meant to turn away from their sin and their fight against Jesus; they needed to turn to Him and accept Him and His way of life. Jesus told His disciples after His resurrection to wait for the Holy Ghost before they started preaching.

The Doctrine of Water Baptism

Salvation has always been through faith. Baptism is done by complete immersion in water only. And their argument is three-fold: mode, meaning, and recipients.

Gospel Water Baptism & John's Baptism Compared to Holy Spirit Baptism

Repentance, therefore, is presented as identifying an individual with the remission of his sins even as baptism following repentance provides an external identification visible to others.

Doctrine of Water Baptism

None of these earn salvation, but all are necessary in order to inherit salvation. These are only a few of the foreshadowing of water baptism in the Old Testament.

Basic Doctrines: Water Baptism

First of all, rarely is doctrine ever made from a single verse. Once the foundation of the church had been laid and the teaching of the apostles had been recorded in Scripture, the role of apostle was no longer needed.

Basic Doctrines: Water Baptism

Now, in addition to Covenant Theology, your doctrine of the church plays into that issue.
