St. Clare's (series)

We also gain two old characters, Gladys and Mirabel to be part of the Fifth form with the twins, Janet, Bobbie, Hillary, Carlotta and Claudine as well as Alison and the Honourable Angela. .

FIFTH FORMERS OF ST CLARE'S HARDBACK

Two girls use their new power badly - Angela Favorleigh takes advantage of her prettiness and charm and turns the younger girls into willing slaves and so does Mirabel, who is games captain.

'Claudine at St Clare's' and 'Fifth Formers at St Clare's' by Enid Blyton

In audiobook three, Pat and Isabel look forward to their first summer term at St Clare's.

Alma is angry, and plays tricks on Alison. Being in the fifth form means quite a lot of changes — for example, the girls have got studies of their own now, instead of common rooms and dormitories, the first — and second-formers have got to work for them. Some cover creases and shelf wear, lighty sunned spine with tape repair at base and sticker tear slightly above.

St. Clare's Audiobooks Series

The power goes to her head, and it makes her very unpopular with both her own year group and younger students.

Fifth Formers at St. Clare's (December 1968 edition)

It is your own responsibility to adhere to these terms. However, occasionally he moved a boy up or down a year — usually down, on the pretext that the boy was too dim to cope with the average academic requirements anyone familiar with Greyfriars will recognise my description of a 5th Former called Horace Coker at this point. Dr Dread teaches science and is half man, half monster.

Mam/zelle locks her in a bathroom when she goes to investigate the second form's midnight feast, the night before a match. . Can anyone shed any light on this for me? Enid Blyton is arguably the most famous children's author of all time, thanks to series such as The Wishing-Chair, The Faraway Tree-, The Mysteries, The Famous Five and The Secret Seven.
