The Constitution also reflects the basic values of our multiparty democracy and the economic and social principles for ensuring a cultured existence for all our people and their diverse political parties. But what Mr Lungu and his disciples do not seem to understand is that the social furniture of modern society is so complicated and fragile that it cannot support the Jackboot. With the emergence of modern democratic states — be they capitalist or socialist, a fundamental change has occurred in the nature of intelligence as an instrument of government.

This morning I woke to find out that Sr Dr Charity Chishimba has died from COVID-19. Comrade Vivian Chunda, candidate for Mafinga constituency, went to Kaswanga primary, Samu basic, and Isoka high schools, and later gained a certificate in customs clearing and forwarding at Kitwe Institute of Management. I read many novels when I was in junior secondary school — James Hadley Chase, Nicky Carter, Allister Maclean and so on and so forth.
