A Reformation Timeline

The most pivotal figure of the Roman Catholic Counter Reformation or, alternately, the Catholic Reformation was Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuit order who established new directions for Catholic education, missions, catechesis, and spiritual formation.

Erasmus

Erasmus was not in the Calvinist branch of the Reformation, but held to the free will of man, over which Luther violently assailed him. But it was clear, the wheels of Revolution he'd set in motion, could not be stopped.
