resisted imperial encroachments on Church matters, but it is difficult to withstand the designs of power-hungry or meddlesome emperors.

My Response to Dan Clendenin's Article I'm Not

Thirdly, what does Catholicism's 16th-century evangelisation of the Americas, Africa and Asia have to do with today? These concessions seemed decisive to me. By contrast, most modern people, at least in the West, think that God is above us all in every respect and in infinite degree.
