Interaction in the radio news interview: a case study of BBC Radio 4's the Today programme and the Human Fertilisation and Embryology Act 2008

Here are some of the elements social media brings to news and their pros and cons. Commissioned review essays appear occasionally, offering the readers a comparative, in-depth examination of prominent titles.

Facebook overhauls News Feed in favor of 'meaningful social interactions'

Chapter 5 first explicates some of the types of work that interviewers accomplish through the production of questions which maintain or pursue the topical focus of preceding turns and sequences. Supervisor: Not available Sponsor: Not available Qualification Name: Thesis Ph.

The social organisation of news interview interaction

Using the techniques of conversation analysis, the next three chapters then focus on three central domains of news interview conduct: the organisation of turn-taking, the organisation of topic, and the organisation of disagreement. When two or more persons work together to gain common goal, it is called cooperation.
