Having grown up in New Hampshire, Shannon and her brothers were encouraged by their parents to pursue the arts, which instilled in Shannon a love for writing at a young age. Aunt Lydia presents a Guardian who's been convicted of rape and says he's to be executed by the mob of Handmaids, who beat him to death. It was too much to bear.

New England in Feature Films

Emily Bronte, Wuthering Heights Okay, so another classic on the list, Wuthering Heights. And one might wish to examine the late twentieth century drive to explore urban New England in films such as Monument Ave.

Used to be a grist mill and a barn. We know from the beginning what's done to those who won't comply, and each time Janine appears onscreen, we're reminded of what could happen to Offred or any other Handmaid. Ofglen later reveals that the man was actually part of the resistance movement, and she knocked him out before the others got to him so he wouldn't suffer as much.
