Mary Bywaters Dance Collection (Part 1) A History of Ballet, Dance, and the Performing Arts

Series XXI - Slides - Boxes 194-196 These are 35mm color slides of dance festivals and other performances, mostly of the Dallas Civic Ballet. Ralov joined the company 1940 and was one of its leading dancers until 1962.

Royal Ballet's 'The Nutcracker' will be performed at the Royal Opera House this...

But does the show ever truly afford her that complexity and autonomy? This is made even more frustrating by the fact that the book upon which the show is based had a main lesbian character who was one of the students but was erased from the story in the show. General curriculums and booklist are last. So many of these students seem to believe that their lives have been written for them, set in stone, and they struggle to break free of those expectations.
