Introduction

The Origins of the Eisenhower Doctrine

Οι διαμαρτυρίες του Αϊζενχάουερ εναντίον μακροχρόνιων συμμάχων, όπως της Βρετανίας και της Γαλλίας κατά τη διάρκεια της κρίσης του Σουέζ σήμαινε ότι οι ΗΠΑ θα ήταν η μόνη δυτική δύναμη στη Μέση Ανατολή και καθώς έθεσαν σε κίνδυνο την ασφάλεια πετρελαίου των ΗΠΑ και με την να καλύπτει το κενό ισχύος. But the Americans did these things as steps toward another more paramount goal: the incorporation of the Middle East into a containment strategy aimed at the Soviet Union. The diplomatic, economic and military elements of Western strategic policy in the post-war Middle East have been the focus of much scholarly attention in recent years.

On January 5, 1957, then, Eisenhower proclaimed, with the approval of Congress, that he would use the armed forces to protect the independence of any Middle Eastern country seeking American help. In a clear and well-organized fashion, he shows us the thinking of not only the American government, but the British and Egyptian governments as well. You can pre-order your copy now.
