

Technical development and peasant impoverishment - land use in policy in Zimbabwe's midlands province.

-- The State and Agrarian Change in Zimbabwe's Communal Areas

Description: -

-Technical development and peasant impoverishment - land use in policy in Zimbabwe's midlands province.

-

Schriftenreihe des Zentrums für Angewandte Politikforschung -- Bd. 23

Conférence Jean-de Brébeuf, 1958

Journal of Southern African studies -- v.15, no.2 Technical development and peasant impoverishment - land use in policy in Zimbabwe's midlands province.

Notes: Taken from Journal of Southern African studies, vol.15, no.2, 1989.

This edition was published in 1989

Filesize: 43.59 MB

Tags: #EMPOWERING #THE #SMALLHOLDER #COMMUNITIES #IN #SUSTAINABLE #Watershed #Management #for #Rehabilitation #of #Degraded #Arid #Rangelands

Problems of land use planning in the communal areas of Zimbabwe: a case study of Gutu District, Masvingo Province

To look after children of low income families and also the destitute.

Western hegemony over african agriculture in Southern Rhodesia and its continuing threat to food security in independent zimbabwe

To aid and assist with the needs to the displaced and resettled persons in Zimbabwe. Economics has played a dominant role in every attempt at constructing development theories. For instance, spatio-temporal surveys of key indicator taxa, such as vascular plants, birds and arthropods, can offer vital information on species richness and diversity.

Direct use values and nutritional potential of selected wild edible plants from Teso

The first requirement is to define phases of the developmental cycle on the basis of multiple criteria rather than only by the age of a household head. To co-ordinate and hold seminars, conferences on issues of disability.

Problems of land use planning in the communal areas of Zimbabwe: a case study of Gutu District, Masvingo Province

J Moderate 750-1,000 Intensive Cultivation III 19 Moderate but Erratic 650-800 Semi- Extensive Ranching V 27 Low and Erratic Below 650 Extensive Only Ranching Sources: Whitsun 1983:6-7 ; Billing 1985:6-7. Environmental issues: knowledge, uncertainty and the environment.

Problems of land use planning in the communal areas of Zimbabwe: a case study of Gutu District, Masvingo Province

C To Provide Intermittent counselling to children on Broad Areas of individual growth. Education, health 577 Tariro Organisation 117th Glenview 8 Harare Box 609 Southerton, Harare 04 690147 Mr Masango Provides a homely environment to those who have had psychiatric problems in the past by rehabilitating them. There are three main categories: drip irrigation where drip emitters are used to apply water slowly to the soil surface , spray or micro-sprinkler irrigation where water is sprayed to the soil near individual plants or trees and bubbler irrigation where a small stream is applied to flood small basins or the soil adjacent to individual trees.

Forestry policy in colonial and postcolonial Zimbabwe: continuity and change

His view is that given the scale of 93 the poverty problem and the limited capacity of other sectors to expand productive employment a viable strategy for raising the incomes of the lowest 40 percent of the population in developing countries must necessarily focus on the agricultural sector.

Zimbabwe NGO Directory

Characteristics of land tenure and use policy during 30 years of small irrigation system operations in Niger that have enhanced beneficiary incentives and project sustainability are summarized and a closer examination of the applicability of similar policies and practices among other systems in the region is suggested Norman. Women in the Third World: Gender Issues in Rural and Urban Areas. There are nickel deposits in several serpentinite areas in greenstone belts with igneous complexes around the country.

Traditional Authority: Accountability and Governance in Zimbabwe

These are 1 the technical, ecological and economic situation of the farming community concerned; 2 the attitudes, capacities and needs of the farmers themselves; 3 the nature of the marketing and processing channels; and 4 the administrative resources of the government as the directing agency of change. The purchase areas originally covered 3. To promote the conservation of biodiversity.

Related Books

- Phosphor handbook.
- Ai confini degli imperi - nuove linee, nuove frontiere
- Handwerksgeschichte in neuer Sicht
- Kaiyō minzokugaku - umi no nachurarisuto-tachi
- Mounting threat of home intruders - weighing the moral option of armed self-defense