This Bridge Called My Back: Writings by Radical Women of Color

And we eat them, out of cans or otherwise; we are eaters of death, dead Christ-flesh resurrecting inside us, granting us life. Like the ancient Israelites, the Cherokees had some fascinating origin stories to explain how various things came into existence.

This Bridge Called My Back: Writings by Radical Women of Color

You see the men, how they are willing to sell shamelessly, the happiness of countless generations of fellow-creatures, the honor of their country, and their immortal souls for a money market and political power. Poet Don West and Union Theological School-educated Myles Horton, both mountaineers, founded the school on the model of the Scandinavian folk schools.
