'Rum, Sodomy and the Lash' by Kieran Devaney

I enjoy a good sea tale now and then, so didn't mind the Medusa sections, though I was here for the other parts.

'What Are Those Traditions? Rum, Sodomy, and the Lash'

11 Famous Misquotations and What Was Really Said

We are going on swinging bravely forward along the grand high road and already behind the distant mountains is the promise of the sun. Select Gold in the Certification field.

rum sodomy and the lash

Gradually more interminable stretches of this narrative are punctuated by a brief sections devoted to each of the songs that constitute the album; these sections are cribbed from a couple of source texts by MacGowan and Chevron, which you'd be much better off reading. It is a tale told by the eponymous anatomist, who we meet initially languishing in Marshallsea, the notorious London gaol, lamenting his fate and eager to share his tall tales with anybody who has ears to hear he relates part of the story to a resident mouse. When I visited I didn't see any wild cats -- but I did take this shot of Kilkenny Castle.

19th century Royal Navy medical journals reveal perils of life at sea
