Darby Brethrenism by C.H. Spurgeon

Darby had instituted a second meeting at Plymouth, and he complained of the Bristol Bethesda assembly in 1848, in which George Müller was prominent; he was concerned because they had accepted a member from Ebrington Street, Newton's original chapel.

Plymouth Brethren FAQ

Since some disagreed with this action, the majority separated from them and began meeting in Guildford Hall.

This seems like a small matter to some, but it is tantamount to saying that the Lord Jesus Christ shared in man's Original Sin! The author is not responsible for any errors or omissions, and will gladly receive any corrections. A book has been written about the assembly work in Barbados: by S. Too often, a man will study an issue for years, make up his mind, teach it from the platform and expect all others to immediately adopt it.
