Six Secular Philosophers by beck, lewis

An essentialist program normally teaches children progressively, from less complex skills to more complex.

Lewis White Beck, Six Secular Philosophers ( Augustine's Press, 1997)

Plato expressed his distinctive views about the nature of knowledge, reality, and the soul: When the soul and body are united, then nature orders the soul to rule and govern, and the body to obey and serve. Piaget placed great importance on the education of children. Not surprisingly, How Children Fail ignited a firestorm of controversy.
