The good fight: political memoirs, 1909

Historians and activists disagree on Lewis' reasons for doing so, but Caplan suggests that the shock of the Cartier election probably made him reluctant to fight another intense campaign against a Jewish Communist candidate. By the end, you get a good idea of what it must have been like to be in Stephanopoulos' shoes, and how much the job that he has held entails and must take out of you.

Quite a bit of language, including f words. Walter Mondale is the best kind of public man—intelligent, honest, hardworking, effective. History of Federal Ridings since 1867.

The Good Fight

In the CCF, he took the role of disciplinarian and dealt with internal organizational problems. I must admit up front, I LOVE George Stephanopoulos, much to the chagrin of my right-wing husband who cannot abide him. And it was, in parts.

David Lewis (politician)

By April 1945, the CCF was down to 20 percent nationally, and on election day it received only 16 percent. An illuminating memoir by a notably decent, thoughtful, genuine, likable, and underestimated American leader. The base system is the , a public domain classification created by John Mark Ockerbloom

Holding up a mirror to the face of history

Wait - with Hil a I read this while pregnant with Abby so 10+ years ago and came across it again recently. Despite these criticisms, it is an insightful and fascinating book.
