She returns to Fortezza and as the elder of Jacopo's two legitimate daughters, she is his heir.

City of Masks

She has two problems here: only boys can become a mandolier, and only people born on Bellezza can stay in the city the night after the festival. The book mainly follows two main characters, Lucien and Arianna.

Luciano Crinamorte

The writing is very important to me. During his second attempt on Silvia's life, he unwittingly kills his fiancée, Giuliana, who is being used as a double for the Duchessa at the time. My mother was already very sick and the memories we spent taking turns reading pages to each other are ones that I will treasure for life now that she is no longer with m Rating: 4 out of 5 stars maybe even 3.

City of Masks

He becomes the foster-son of Luciano's parents, Vicky and David Mulholland, under the identity of Nicholas Duke. There are more characters and POVs, like Rodolfo Rossi Stravagante, magician, the Duchessa's favorite and future mentor of Luciano and his brothers, the Duchessa herself always masked, always cunning and smart , Arianna's family a big one and not without secrets , William Dethridge the first Stravagante from our 16th century , di Chimici power-hungry and slippery , plus people of Talia. It was when they couldn't do anything together any more that Dad started really talking to him.

City of Masks (Stravaganza Series #1) by Mary Hoffman

She has three grown daughters and lives with her husband in a big old converted barn in West Oxfordshire, England. Aurelio is more high-minded and idealistic towards the traditional beliefs of the Manoush while Raffaella is more practical.
