Character of Christ Perfectly Reproduced

. CT 192 Heaven may invite them, and present its choicest blessings, and they may have every facility to develop a perfect character; but all will be in vain unless they are willing to help themselves. Again, ye are not of the world in your character; for that is the chief point in which Christ was not of the world.

The Spurgeon Library

But character also seeks to cultivate the kind of disciplined life that bears the fruit of the Holy Spirit. The strength of any testimony absolutely depends on the quality of its witnesses. Again: you are not of the world in your office.

Character Development

Although He was praised as a great teacher and even had a decent following, He made sure to teach them to be servants by actually doing it himself. Timothy: Eventually became an elder at Ephesus in AD 65. They have inherited the defective characters of their parents, and the discipline of the home has been no help in the formation of right character.

Character Development

We make a mid-course adjustment at that moment.
