Meleika Gesa

Chris Abani has asserted that he was in prison and we do not believe him.

Cristi Puiu's The Death of Mr. Lazarescu

To do this and make it something more than just a bit of nonsensical clever-dickery is a challenge, and Toby Fitch pulls it off: those first lines give a whiff of the biting satire that he creates. This poem explores the archetype of the cave — a cave that calls, a cave that contains secrets and perhaps even information.

In the Eye of the Sun

Amatoritsero Godwin Ede is a poet and MA student of literature at the Hannover University in Germany. We must call on those we send our findings to at this initial stage to ask themselves if Abani has the integrity to speak for art, beautifully woven around false personal history.

Chris Abani: Lie$ of the Truth

After some time he ended up on British ships and became a British subject.

Valerian (emperor)

Although the Sumerians invented the cuneiform and began writing on clay tablets, the records they left behind are somewhat overshadowed by those of the Akkadians.

#stargazing poems

In Sumerian myth, An and Ki produced a variety of plants on the earth. Chris Abani then ratchets up the lies. Thus, Nigerian writers and activists have the opportunity to speak out now before this happens.

A Poem About What Grounds You

The racist terms and acts in the book are not supposed to be taken at face value. She has taught at Sarah Lawrence College, Dartmouth College, and New York University. Some pieces are very personal, even intimate, replete with private jokes and tales of shared meals; others, especially the poems, have no easily discernible connection to Brooks.

A Poem for What Comes with Age

A sanctuary of Asclepius was founded on the south slope of the Acropolis in 420 bce. Writer Sophie Krueger says the 1973 movie has resonated differently over time.
