English Language Teaching Strategies Used by Primary Teachers in One New Delhi, India School

This is the fourth annual survey to report enrolment above 96%. Muslims use Arabic and Persian words to write Kashmiri, whereas, Hindus prefer Sharada alphabets, a script originated in India during 10 th century. To make sure they get definite understanding of the text, engaging the students during reading will assist them with making connections between what is being read and the new vocabulary.

In Singapore and Malaysia, it is also used as a language of education. It is the national language of Nepal where it is spoken as a first language by most of the population. Also, under current law it is illegal for foreigners to teach English in pre-schools or kindergartens, though it is almost always overlooked by both the schools and the government, thereby making the practice common and accepted.

Revisiting The Language Policy Of India

The recitation is still oral but the child is now looking at and pointing to the print. Gujarati is also counted among the 22 official languages in India. The learning that was occurring in these classrooms led the researchers to be less critical of this method of teaching content knowledge.
