Crime Prevention

They are your partners in crime prevention. This is because criminals may not feel comfortable committing crimes if they are afraid they might get caught. Awareness and Prevention are the keys to staying safe.

What is Crime Prevention? (with pictures)

Crime Prevention programs and services are designed to provide you the tools you need to participate in crime prevention efforts in your neighborhood. That's why in one neighborhood, they had areas made for youth to hang out, play sports and exercise.

Crime Prevention

Many people feel that the condition of a particular neighborhood plays a part in the amount of crime committed there.

Crime Prevention

Convincing youth to remain in school and receive an education could eliminate this vulnerability and consequently reduce the possibility of young people going to jail in the future. Effective, responsible crime prevention enhances the quality of life of all citizens.
