He plans to regroup and heroically marches the army across Africa to join forces with King Juba, a trek that occupies most of the middle section of the book. The grand exception to this generally bleak depiction of characters is Cato, who stands as a Stoic ideal in the face of a world gone mad he alone, for example, refuses to consult oracles to know the future.

Book 4: The first half of this book is occupied with Caesar's victorious campaign in Spain against Afranius and Petreius. Seine Sprache zeichnet sich jedoch durch rhetorische Brillanz aus und ist gespickt mit glänzenden Sentenzen und zahlreichen sarkastischen Pointen; das ist eines seiner häufigsten. Tertium edidit Carolus Hosius Bibliotheca Teubneriana.
