My Early Life

The dust jacket is un-faded and complete. He gave me a drum. Britain hasn't fought for a long time since Crimean war.

My Early Life: 1874

In HOME she vividly recreates the years before the movies. My picture of her in Ireland is in a riding habit, fitting like a skin and often beautifully spotted with mud.

My Early Life: Inscribed by Winston Churchill

Churchill Odhams Press Limited, London, 1947. Mensa is a noun of the First Declension. I therefore did not derive much comfort from the spiritual side of my education at this juncture.

My Early Life, 1874

All the later years he spent looking for more trouble and adventures in India and South Africa. With this he set about getting accepted into Sandhurst, which in his case still took three attempts. Apparently he barely survived many times, before rushing off to India to play in an army polo tournament, where he scored the winning goal, despite an incapacitated shoulder.
