Marriage Records Lookup

If their records do not go back far enough, they may be able to tell you if any other churches of that denomination existed in the area at the time and where their records may be. Indexes are organized by state and list individuals in alphabetical order by surname, so you don't need to know the county. Other vital records searches include birth records, death records, and divorce records.

Finding a marriage date

It should be noted that the extracts from the original records that are recorded in the International Genealogical Index are not always accurate.

United States Marriage Records • FamilySearch

Birth Certificate Although not always associated with marriage, a type of record oftentimes associated with marriage is a birth certificate.

Finding a marriage date

Twentieth-century returns often add the residence of the couple, the names of the parents or witnesses, and the certificate number. Box 1545, Jeffersonville, IN 47131.

United States Marriage Records • FamilySearch

Churches and governments often kept marriage records before they documented other life events. When you are searching for Bible records, be sure to look under both the maiden name and married name. Finding the minimum information for the International Genealogical Index To find an individual's marriage date in the International Genealogical Index IGI , you must at least know the individual's name.
