Dhardo

En 1962, il cesse de travailler à Bodh Gaya. Upon arriving I was ushered into an antechamber and asked to wait for about half an hour. He took handfuls of nails and a big stone from his mouth, made water disappear from a pot etc.

'Meeting' Dhardo Rinpoche

Sitting on my bed with my back to the window, I took first the Class X or matriculation students for English, then the Intermediate students for English and logic, one class playing ping-pong and carrom-board in the Recreation Hut while the other studied with me. And the letters of the mantra, and there are 100 of these letters - it's called the 100 syllable mantra - went down into the pit like a sort of chain, like a garland or like a mala, and were sort of circling like this and this disciple seized hold of me, like you see on a rope, and hauled himself up out of the pit. This path divided the garden into two unequal parts, in the more extensive of which - the one that lay farther back from the road - stood the majority of the ornamental trees that had been planted by the original owner of the property.
