Works of Lysander Spooner vol. 1

Nor is this all, they say, 'that the bones, if again boiled for a still longer time, will once more yield a nourishing broth, which may be made into pea soup. And the first motive I shall mention is the duty of gratitude, which you that are governors of families owe to God. And it is to be supposed that persons endowed with miraculous gifts, had the same influence over them as if they were natural endowments.

However, in general it is obvious that both self-love and particular affections in human creatures, considered only as passive feelings, distort and rend the mind, and, therefore, require discipline to moderate them. Behold here, then, another excellent benefit flowing from religious society; it will keep us zealous, as well as steady, in the way of godliness.

George Whitefield: Selected Sermons of George Whitefield

Indeed, if the God we worship be not good, as we call goodness, it were better for us not to worship Him at all; better for us to worship nothing at all, than to worship an evil deity. Beebe is a member of the Baptist Church.
