Once Is Not Enough by Cassandra Lawrence

But this ghost proves dangerous, at one point a dazed January almost falling out of her skyline apartment to be with him. But to be fair the movie-going public knew this was trash going in and the cast knew this was trash as they spoke their lines with various degrees of conviction. Now he looks like a young man of 44 since I'm coming rapidly up on 53! Let me know if any of you agree.

Glorious Trash: Once Is Not Enough

There was a scene with Raffin's character walking blankly across the road nearly getting run over by a taxi after she is devastated by Janssen's character, and yet I still could not determine any difference in her acting from that scene to the entire film. It's hard to go into details without giving away part of the book.
