The moment a historian begins to analyze the larger context, his findings become unacceptable to one or another group of readers.

In Memory of My Father Aaron Rachowitz: Links

During this period, the Jews of Sventsyany and Novo Sventsyany, who had been more fortunate than their Vilna counterparts, organized relief efforts at Poligon. The Sventsyany Ghetto was finally completely liquidated in April 1943, when remaining Jews were packed into boxcars and told they were being relocated to Kovno. These elders represented the communities in all external relations, in securing new privileges, and in the regulation of taxes.
