Eventually, a year later, she released her second album, Linda Davis, which did not produce any chart singles at all. Honky tonk slowly declined in popularity as rockabilly and country-pop captured mainstream audiences, but its signature sound informed virtually every reaction against country-pop in the decades to come: Bakersfield country in the '60s, progressive and outlaw country in the '70s, and New Traditionalist country in the '80s and '90s.

Snow told the audience he would spearhead a drive to help abused children because he still carries the scars of his own beatings. In September 2005, she was hospitalized again for a second attempted suicide by antidepressant overdose. They sat at tables with faces uncovered, although the organization claimed it extensively tested everyone.

Told Off Berle The Williams philosophy was unique. Just to keep all this interesting, and to keep her lawyers working, Billie Jean sued MGM over her part, or her lack of a part, in the film.

Dolly Parton, Reba McEntire, Blake Shelton, and More React to Kenny Rogers' Death

Except for the part about selling millions of albums and being a judge on , Bryan's life seems like a country love song: The dude worked his way up from songwriter to performer, and he.
