

Man who made Littlewoods - the story of John Moores

Hodder & Stoughton - A dynasty divided

Description: -

-
Businessmen -- Great Britain -- Biography
Littlewoods Organization -- History
Moores, Johnman who made Littlewoods - the story of John Moores
-man who made Littlewoods - the story of John Moores
Notes: Includes index
This edition was published in 1993

Filesize: 20.51 MB

Tags: #Moores, #John # [WorldCat #Identities]

h2g2

Moores found the job monotonous, he was ambitious, curious of mind and wanted to leave the constraints of poverty behind.

References

The Barclay Brothers retained the online littlewoods.

9780340574799

Littlewoods Mail Order was established three months before Peter was born in 1932 and Janatha was born in 1937 as John branched out into chain stores. With John out of the picture and Peter exhibiting an artistic temperament, rather than a steady businessman's hand, Sir John turned to Nigel. In the late summer of last year, it all proved too much.

Son of Moores family behind Littlewoods empire wins equal share to his late mother's millions

The astute pair rose from being the sons of a bricklayer to having — at one point — three female family members said to be richer than the Queen. Pictured David Moores with his wife Marge at the plaque unveiling.

Related Books

- Catholic priesthood and the English Reformation
- Homemaker/home health aide
- Nazism, resistance & holocaust in World War II - a bibliography
- Lwów sentymentalny - historia miasta w obrazach
- Oiseaux du nord-ouest de l'Afrique - distribution géographique, écologie, migrations, reproduction