Re-imagining Heritage Interpretation: Enchanting the Past-future. It contributes significantly to the integrity of the nominated property.

Conservation and Management of Wooden Structures 2019

Building on this knowledge, heritage sites and cultural centers can develop interpretation and programming that is more representational of the memories, history, and Indigenous experiences of sites. This book draws on different perspectives and a rich body of international expertise and research.

Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage (U.S. National Park Service)

This paper offers a simple framework that can be used to compare sites, places and events within nations and between nations. The visit to Japanese heritage sites forms a core component of the programme, where participants conduct practical work. Participants The workshop is open to a maximum number of 15 young professionals from Asia and the Pacific region involved in the management of cultural or natural heritage sites, specifically, sacred landscapes.

Heritage interpretation

They produced a report on their meeting, in which they provided recommendations for how the arts could be boosted and linked between the two countries.

Conservation and Management of Wooden Structures 2019

The cultural heritage and arts sectors hold unrealised opportunities for the closely neighbouring countries of PNG and Australia to exchange knowledge and skills. Our goal is to provide interpretation and access to heritage resources on public lands for APA urban communities and others. We will inform successful candidates and each National Commission for UNESCO of the result in early July.
