For both revisionists and orthodox social democrats, there was a divorce between the ends and the means, which emasculated and bastardized Marxism

Sidney Hook (1989 edition)

The understanding of verification in pragmatic theory as requiring experimental confirmation of hypotheses by an appeal to derived, predictable consequences illuminated crucial dissimilarities between pragmatism and a Marxist theory of verification through revolutionary activism in societal transformation. His organization wanted to establish an annual award for distinguished careers in public affairs writing.

Fearless Sidney Hook

Similarly, for Hook, there would be no bar to the realization of democracy in either a society that had free markets or in a society in which government owned or controlled the economic means of production. Trotsky himself was cross-examined as a witness at the trial.

Luisa De Albuquerque

Hook introduced a theoretical division of historic personalities and especially leaders into the eventful man and the event-making man, depending on their influences on the historical process.

I still call myself a socialist or social democrat for many reasons, but especially to make it clear that it is possible to oppose Communism from the standpoint of a democratic welfare state. Along these lines, Marxism represented the application of scientific method to the current empirical realities of society. And in explaining the lesser American achievement, Hook is probably right in finding there was a dilettantish, thin, secondhand character to the political experience of American literary intellectuals.

Did I have an idea about who should be the first recipient, he asked me. In the 1920s and 30s, Hook had managed to balance a commitment to both philosophy and political action, but the demands of career and family no doubt encouraged him to retreat from politics. Many other schools extended invitations.

Fearless Sidney Hook

He was hired as a lecturer and then Assistant Professor at Harvard University. Hook remained a sympathizer of Trotskyism and the anti-Stalinist left for a few more years until the impact of the Soviet Purges, World War II, and the Cold War caused him to shift to the right.
