Debt Restructuring Definition

We are a team of seasoned legal professionals and industry leaders, with pedigrees equal to those found at traditional large firms.

UN adopts landmark debt resolution on principles for sovereign debt restructuring

The Alliance of Small Island States said debt sustainability poses a serious challenge to the group, which suffers disproportionately high debt-to-GDP ratio. Unlike the Security Council, which has the power to issue legally binding resolutions, General Assembly resolutions are non-binding. However, the contractual rights of all creditors must be taken into account.

UN adopts landmark debt resolution on principles for sovereign debt restructuring

The next steps will include a follow-up process to this landmark vote, which will ensure that the further development of the UN principles on sovereign debt restructuring processes will stay alive within the General Assembly in the immediate future.

Banking, Finance, & Debt Restructuring

We focus on three core activities: Technical Assistance The World Bank Group also provides technical assistance to countries interested in improving their debt resolution, insolvency, and alternative dispute resolution ADR systems, through advising governments on legislative and institutional reforms.

The South Centre

He has delivered training courses on behalf of a number of international training companies since 2005. Majority restructuring implies that sovereign debt restructuring agreements that are approved by a majority of creditors are not to be impeded by other States or a non-representative minority of creditors. One jurisdiction makes one ruling and another jurisdiction makes a different ruling, resulting in no place where these different rulings can be reconciled.

Financial Modelling for Dept Restructuring Courses

While the resolution does not reflect the original subject of establishing a multilateral legal mechanism for sovereign debt restructuring, the nine principles that have been adopted have been called a historical breakthrough because the vast majority of nations in the world have spoken out for a change to the current creditor-led debt system that has repeatedly failed numerous countries. The event is co-organized by the World Bank Group and INSOL International. The principles themselves are non-binding in nature and India called for voluntary adherence to them.
