25 years of post

He moved to strip the two autonomous provinces of Kosovo and Vojvodina of their constitutionally-guaranteed autonomy within Serbia by using mass rallies to force the local leaderships to resign in favor of his own preferred candidates. Global, regional, and national incidence, prevalence, and years lived with disability for 354 diseases and injuries for 195 countries and territories, 1990-2017: a systematic analysis for the Global Burden of Disease Study 2017.

Transition economy

Water quality degradation, diversion, and withdrawal has led to increased insecurity and conflict. Without private ownership, the transition to markets is destined to fail. The expectation was that the end of the East-West conflict would mean international stability, but this hope was not borne out, as civil wars and other conflicts in the developing world presented new challenges.

Healthcare in transition in the Republic of Armenia: the evolution of emergency medical systems and directions forward

Central Asia has an arid climate with hot summers and cold winters.

Republics of Russia

After independence, they were quick to look toward Western Europe for trade and development. It provides a rational set of market-determined processes for resource allocation, introduces more competition, allows countries to specialize according to their comparative advantages, and lets the market rather than the government pick the winners.

Dissolution of the USSR and the Establishment of Independent Republics, 1991

Two main lessons emerged from our own reform process. Survival in out-of-hospital cardiac arrest after standard cardiopulmonary resuscitation or chest compressions only before arrival of emergency medical services: nationwide study during three guideline periods.
