About

Some paper thinness on old folds, reinforced for protective reason. The office was initially assumed by Field Marshal Radetzky, upon his retirement in 1857 it passed it to Franz Joseph's younger brother who later became , who served as Governor-General in Milan from 1857 to 1859. This example is state 3 of the original Janssonius plate, printed after Schenk acquired the plates at public auction in 1694 from the heirs of Jansson van Waesberge.
