All For Love

While I appreciate Richard Halliburton's writing and stories in some ways, he isn't my favorite character. Although I admire Halliburton's adventurous spirit and poetical writing style, several things diminished my regard: most notably his self-centered Mixed emotions. Ten men, because it would take that many normal people to live his life if fueled by a desire to escape the nine-to-five convention of office walls.

A Road to Romance on Apple Books

How they encounter even more dramas than they have already. Are you on a budget? From breaking into the Taj Mahal, the Alhambra, being arrested in Gibraltar you can't help but be captivated by Halliburton's adventure. I am very disappointed by this conclusion but will still continue to enjoy the poetical prose of his writings in his other books.
