Hindu Rituals for Death and Grief

As Chair of the National Commission for Women, Dr. Women are often forced into prostitution by corrupt heads of such ashrams. With child marriage common in villages, some girls are even widowed as children, leaving them particularly vulnerable.

Munaeem's Blog: The ongoing tragedy of India's widows

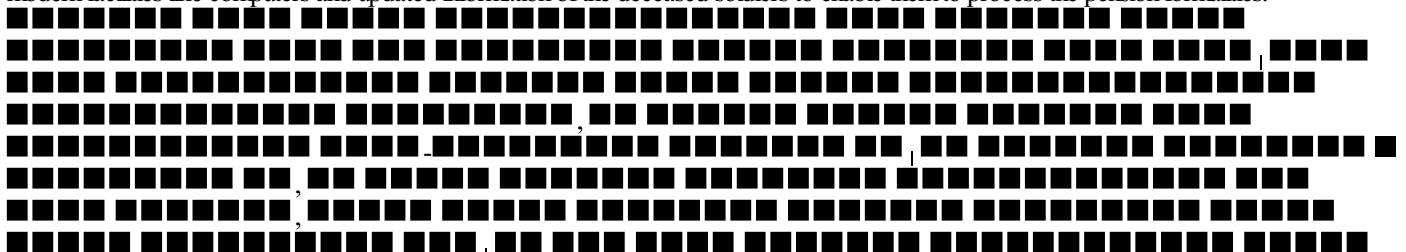

Since India's independence in 1947—or more precisely since 1943—there has been a spectacular revival of the phenomenon in four Northern Indian states: Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, and especially Rajasthan, a former stronghold of sati. Organisations like War Widows Association of India have stepped forward to provide skill building and livelihood opportunities to these women.
