A Defense of Secession and Political Self

In this case, collective security failed as a deterrent, mainly because of misunderstandings between Saddam Hussein and George Bush over whether the United States would respond militarily to an Iraqi invasion of Kuwait.

A theory of secession : the case for political self

The instrumental case for most forms of democracy seems to me quite strong, even if the flaws of all of our democracies are now well-known. Such an attempt would cause an expansion of the conflict: Albania has announced that it will intervene against a Serbian invasion of Kosovo, whose population is 90% ethnic Albanians.
