

Bytown - a guide to Lowertown Ottawa

Commission = La Commission - Lower Town

Description: -

-Bytown - a guide to Lowertown Ottawa

-Bytown - a guide to Lowertown Ottawa

Notes: Text in English and French.

This edition was published in 1980

Filesize: 64.33 MB

Tags: #Ottawa #Ontario

Ottawa Ontario

The Catholic Church was the most visible institution during the growth and maturing of this unique neighbourhood. Patrick Street, one of the oldest houses in Ottawa, typical of dwellings accommodating workers in Lowertown before 1867.

Bytown and its first French Canadians

By-laws protect some structures individually while others form part of the Lowertown West Heritage Conservation District. It was published under the authority of the Local Architectural Conservation Advisory Committee, City of Ottawa, 2000.

Bytown, a Guide to Lowertown Ottawa by National Capital Commission

She founded the first congregation of religious women in the Archdiocese of Ottawa, the Sisters of Charity of Ottawa also called Grey Nuns of the Cross until 1968. Source : Library and Archives Canada, Temporary record for orphaned ICON records, MIKAN 2934242, C-014344. The three parish churches continue in use.

LOWER TOWN Historic District of Ottawa

Mother Bruyère entered eternal rest on April 5, 1876; she was 58 years old.

Related Books

- Oiseaux du nord-ouest de l'Afrique - distribution géographique, écologie, migrations, reproduction
- India in French literature
- Selective Service information - now that the draft has ended.
- Story of English
- Status and prospects of educational research in Quebec