Amid Daudet's vast and varied output the story of Tartarin occupies a unique place. Tartarin On The Alps was written in 1885. Translated from the French by Henry Frith.

Tartarin of Tarascon [and] Tartarin on the Alps : Daudet, Alphonse, 1840

While awaiting the second dinner-gong, the transient inmates of the vast and gorgeous caravansary, half frozen in their chambers above, or gasping on the divans of the reading-rooms in the damp heat of lighted furnaces, were gazing, in default of the promised splendours, at the whirling white atoms and the lighting of the great lamps on the portico, the double glasses of which were creaking in the wind.
