Adopting the Hurt Child : Hope for Families with Special

I may have been able to help him, if I had thought of his problems at this level rather than dealing with our problems through marital counseling how sad to discover this too late. Of course they could never completely understand until they have fostered or adopted themselves, but it is a start. Sometimes, these children do not get better.

Adopting the Hurt Child: Hope for Families With Special

Our niece still has many problems, and time will tell.

Adopting the Hurt Child: Hope for Families With Special

We personally assess every book's quality and offer rare, out-of-print treasures. Very eye opening book regarding the problems with adopting older children.

Adopting the Hurt Child: Hope for... book by Gregory C. Keck

I purchased it because my husband and I are thinking about adopting a Special Needs child. She came from the inner city, to our sheltered, happy home in the suburbs.
