Northern Cumbrian Coastal Defences

The conclusion was reached that Tynemouth required modern artillery defence and its strategic importance as the obvious main defence of the Tyne was recognized.

Condercum

We didn't visit the museum, but we did go. The monastery at Tynemouth was refounded by the Earl of Northumberland, Robert de Mowbray in 1085.

Library

Pottery of the latter half of the 4th century or early years of the 5th was most abundant, although no contemporary structure was encountered. This ancient earthwork is still clearly visible at Wrekenton today. Victor Tombstone The tombstone shows Victor reclining on a highly decorated couch being served a drink by a slave.
