Riots and Rebellions

The gift of Thomas E. Hunting or Six Hours Sport, Henry Alken 1823.

Fort St. Louis

Collection: Collection 624 Ephemera of the ZamZam Incident

Late 19th early 20th century. The iguana, the giant lizard to be found in all the Caribbean islands is a disgusting, repulsive reptile, gnarled and knotted with wart-like excrescences of exceedingly grawsome and gouty appearance. A few miles from St.

The First Christian Missionaries in the Ancient World

The group went extinct at the end of the Permian period. Here and there, at widely separated intervals, the waves have battered breaches in this sea-wall ; through them entrance is gained to quiet anchorages.

Images of Enslavement and the Slave Trade

The veil is to a Hindu girl what a fan is to a señorita of Castile. She caught me looking at her, and smiled quizzically, as if she found me grotesque or outlandish in appearance.
