

Early Yorkshire charters.

Yorkshire Archaeological Society - DEEDS

Description: -
-Early Yorkshire charters.
-
Yorkshire Archaeological Society record series -- vol.3Early
Yorkshire charters.
Notes: Text of charters in Latin.
This edition was published in 1939

Filesize: 43.28 MB

Tags: #Early #Yorkshire #charters #: #based #on #the #manuscripts #of #the #late #William #Farrer #/ #edited #by #Charles #T...

The Record Series

The Chartulary of the Cistercian Abbey of Saint Mary of Sallay in Craven Yorkshire Archaeological Society, Record Series, LXXXVII , I, 1933. This thirteen-volume series, published for the Yorkshire Archaeological Society between 1914 and 1965, is an extensive collection of the pre-thirteenth-century deeds and charters of Yorkshire, which had previously remained largely unpublished.

Early Yorkshire Charters

As Robert's first son, Adam, gave, witnessed by his second son Robert II, churches founded by an Adam de Brus, in the fief of Brix, Normandy, to the abbey of Saint Saviour le Vicomte, on the death of their father; whose grant was later confirmed by a Peter, son of William the forester de Brus, assumed the nephew, and younger brother of Robert I, respectively, through claiming Adam, 2nd Lord of Skelton, as their kinsman, and overlord.

Early Yorkshire Charters I II III medieval local history Wm Farrer 3 volume set ▷ $124.68

The volume also contains facsimile plates of select documents, and detailed indexes. Essays in Honour of Kathleen Major, Oxford, 1972, pp. Volume 5 1936 is the second of two devoted to the Honour of Richmond.

Early Yorkshire charters; being a collection of documents anterior to the thirteenth century made from the public records, monastic chartularies, Roger Dodsworth's manuscripts and other available sources : Farrer, William, 1861

A general introduction discusses the organisation of the Society of Friends in Yorkshire, and the survey is completed with biographical notes on people who make an appearance in the record. The fee of Hallamshire; 24. Some charters were drafted by special functionaries or notary publics who authenticated them by adding, for example, a seal see nos.

Early Yorkshire Charters: Volume 12, The Tison Fee, Volume 12, The Tison Fee

This thirteen-volume series, which first appeared between 1914 and 1965, is an extensive collection of the pre-thirteenth-century charters and related records of Yorkshire, which had previously remained largely unpublished. The Yorkshire Archaeological Society Journal The first volume of the The Yorkshire Archaeological Society Journal was published in 1874 as The Yorkshire Archaeological and Topographical Society Journal. Volume 10 1955 is devoted to the Trussebut Fee, but also contains texts related to the Ros Fee.

Early Yorkshire Charters: Volume 3 : William Farrer : 9781108058254

Series Title: Responsibility: edited by William Farrer. . The volume features the correspondence between Sir Marmaduke Constable of Everingham Hall East Riding and his chaplain, Dom John Bede Potts, who from 1726, became the supervisor of his estate and business affairs.

---

Related Books

- Wolves, bison, and the dynamics related to the Peace-Athabasca Delta in Canadas Wood Buffalo Nationa
- Caviar - a true delicacy
- Polnaculte - Michel Polnareff vu par ses auteurs et par lui-même
- Docteur Spock parle aux mamans
- Pitman 2000 shorthand - First course.