Catholic Apologetics

Early translations confirm the meaning of the Hebrew text we have. Collett 190-91 The Father, through the Scriptures, has testified of the divine nature of the person and work of the Logos—the Word in the flesh, the Son of God.

However, there is sufficient evidence available to enable one to rationally come to this negative answer concerning whether God created evil. The idea of a complete water cycle was not fully understood or accepted until the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The argument might be framed like this.

Isaiah 41:21 your says the LORD. your says the King of Jacob.

Not all non-Christians are actively opposed to our faith. But according to Matthew 28:9-10, Jesus appeared pretty healthy when the women saw him. But, by definition, gods that have beginnings, are bound by physical locations, or whose power is limited by some outside constraint owe their existence and thus their allegiance and submission to something greater than themselves.

And in fact, this is what we find. So, if the resurrection of Jesus Christ is so important for our faith, can we know for sure that it really happened? On the other hand, the second man man B takes one of the children into his arms, and cares for the infant night and day with tenderness and loving care.
