Lloyds Bank Locations in Birmingham

John White Cater, Chairman, and two directors, John Bloxham Elin and Edward Johnson had received compensation. Banking culture has changed since when I worked in the industry, so unable to comment. This was the last provincial bank in England and Wales to issue its own banknotes, which it had done continuously since 1787.

Birmingham Hippodrome

The history of Lloyds Bank

We are covered by the Financial Ombudsman Service FOS.

Lloyds Bank Birmingham University

This being my first official job, I learnt about self-confidence, how to approach difficult situations with ease and how to deal with different people on a daily basis. It only ceased with the takeover.

Working at Lloyds Bank in Birmingham: Employee Reviews

In 1918, Lloyds undertook what was to be its biggest takeover until the merger with TSB, some 80 years later.
