This book serves as a holistic approach to parenting, rather than a quick fix, but will help parents and children engage in a mutually loving relationship rather than a hierarchical one. Some of the more recent titles I have included will have that lasting power, but only a few. That may not be the image that your child wants to portray 15 years from now.

And remember, some family responsibilities can help anchor a child to the nonvirtual world: a dog to be walked or trash to be taken out. Bringing a child into the world is a big, exciting, thrilling, stressful thing. So, yes, ladies, make sure that growing family is happy and healthy, but make sure Mama is, as well and know that this gift will help with that in a big and real way.
