Baby, Baby, Baby: Paula Yates, the rock chick who married Bob Geldof and interviews people in bed, has set herself up as an expert on motherhood. Is she serious, or is she just flirting with it, the way she does with everything else?

Trim bushes, trees, and other shrubbery to eliminate hiding spots.

Reading Is Fundamental

So they gave a dinner for him there. Everyone assumes that I won't want to go because I'm pregnant. Nowadays, she claims, 'my interest in work is fairly minimal.'

Use of this site and the information contained herein does not create a doctor-patient relationship. Paula thinks it is amazing she was ever conceived. In December 1997, a few weeks after Hutchence's death and while Yates was fighting for custody of Tiger, Yates suffered another blow when a DNA test result confirmed tabloid media reports that , who had died in April 1993, was not Yates's biological father.
